About Naseem

Naseem was always beautiful and remarkable, but the depth of her beauty was never more apparent than in the courage with which she faced her illness.

To battle such a serious illness and treatment with its undesirable side effects showed tremendous bravery, dignity and determination. She was an inspiration to the patients she knew at the Hospice Day Centre which she attended weekly.

Naseem through the years.

Naseem's Manx Brain Tumour Charity was set up in October 2009 by Naseem Pishvaie, herself a brain tumour sufferer. Sadly, on the very day that Naseem's Charity was inaugurated in the Isle of Man, she lost her battle with brain cancer.

Her goal to set up a charity for brain tumour sufferers, which included a fund to help them enjoy something that would make a difference to their lives, continues under the direction of the Charity's appointed Trustees.

Aims and Objectives

The main aims & objectives of the Charity are:

- Providing support including by the provision of grants, goods, services or financial loans to persons in the Isle of Man suffering from financial hardship.
- Providing practical support, including information regarding brain tumours.
- Purchasing, or facilitating the purchase of medical equipment for use in the Isle of Man or elsewhere; and funding research in the Isle of Man or elsewhere regarding brain tumours and their treatment.

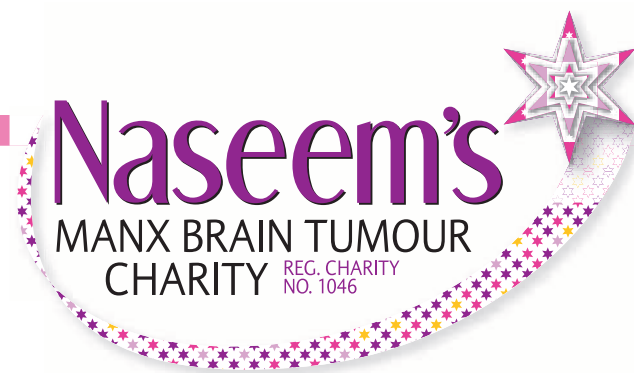

Who Can Apply?

Brain tumour sufferers themselves or someone on their behalf. In some instances we may be able to award a grant to a close family member.

Download the form on our website and get it signed by your GP.

Once you have completed it please send it to our registered office. Your application will normally be considered by the Trustees within 7 working days.

Website

The website is packed with information, including links to national brain tumour organisations, and the latest news and research links about brain tumours.

Fundraising

If you wish to make a donation or nominate the Charity for a future fundraiser we would be delighted to hear from you. Please tell us about any events you plan to hold so we can advertise them on our site and provide whatever support you may need. You can email information to our office. We are here to support you in any fundraising you do.

Therapeutic Support

We also offer therapeutic counselling support and our team will direct you to free counselling services offering a safe place to talk about the impact of your diagnosis and well-being.
